Weekly Recap:

Still waiting on parts to be ordered. Our project timeline has to be pushed back a week or two due to backordered parts. Talked about what needs to happen during this last month stretch.

Meeting Overview:

March 24, 2015 - Meeting-10

Duration: 1 Hours

Attendance - 10

- i. Talked with Aaron about how communication is going with EnSoft. Parts being backordered is causing problems with the timeframe of our project.

- ii. We updated Ted with the situation and had to push back our next meeting with Ted due to not having time to create a suitable prototype in the timeframe originally scheduled to meet with him. (In two weeks)
- iii. Other than that, we are still waiting on parts to arrive to start programming / testing / working on a prototype.
- iv. Reviewed documentation for the embedded system. We need to be prepared to work on this once the parts arrive to provide a testable / working prototype by the end of this semester for demonstration.

Accomplishments this week:

10 - Waiting on back-ordered parts. (We can't really do much)

Pending Issues:

10- We have to wait for the parts to come in. This downtime, we will consult as separate teams (Software / Hardware) to see what sort of planning and route we need to take. The software side has a skeleton app that is uploaded to Git that we will be using to work with. (continued)

- Parts were back-ordered. We have to wait for alternatives to arrive in replacement of the original parts. (continued)
- Reviewing the second portion of the Project Plan that will be due in class. Meetings / Work has been sparse the past couple weeks due to the parts not arriving in a timely manner.

Planning:

10

- i. We have to wait for the parts that we ordered. (Continued)
- ii. Set up 2 mobile applications. (1 for the Physician | 1 for the client) (Continued)

DEC15-04

- iii. Have prototype setup / basic application with data transfer by the end of this month going into April. (March - April) (Continued)
- iv. Plan and review Documentation so that embedded system coding will be easier to accomplish once the parts arrive.
